

Luxury Villa in La Alzambra
La Alzambra, Marbella

AV0115  5  5  640m²  402m²

€2,250,000

This five bedroom five bathroom home gives you more than 420m² of generous living area and more than 220m² of outdoor terraces including an exclusive roof top solarium with panoramic sea views. The villa has recently undergone a complete transformation using top quality materials and furnishings from acclaimed interior designer Andrea Böch. The remodeling included the master bedroom and extension, state of the art kitchen, independent basement apartment and wet kitchen/laundry room.

Set over four floors the basement is split in two sections. The front is designed to house the garage, laundry room and storage area whilst at the rear the space has been creatively designed to include an independent luxury apartment with direct access to the garden and pool. Access to the villa is from the ground floor entrance that leads to a double height reception area. From here you access to the kitchen, dining room, guest bathroom and living room areas. The tropical gardens lead off from the living room areas and include a heated swimming pool and a shaded pergola area. First floor level has four double bedrooms all en-suite and from here you access the roof top solarium including Jacuzzi, a covered seating area, sun loungers and of course great views.
